

Chris Kirby, Actor, Comedian and internationally renowned Ventriloquist and his doll, Terry, are two of Australia's most enduring performers.

What a career! It began in Adelaide when his comedic skills made him a popular teenage host of a daily t.v. kid's show. His international career was launched on the famed Ed Sullivan Show in New York and The London Palladium. He's appeared before the Queen and toured with the likes of Tony Bennett, Shirley Bassey, Tom Jones, Charles Aznavour...

At home he has hosted his own Saturday Night Talk Show, wisecracked with Don Lane and bantered with Ray Martin. He has featured in numerous t.v. commercials and proved himself a popular entertainer in the corporate world.

More recently he has been 're-discovered' by a whole new audience through his tragicomic stage play, "LIPS".

Today, with his innovative approach, recognisable face and unique presentation, Chris Kirby is, more than ever, a multi-talented and versatile powerhouse performer. He transcends the barriers of age and time and has wide demographic appeal.
