

Lips - A brief synopsis

When you're wiped out in a multi-car pile up in the Sydney Harbour Tunnel and it's all your fault, it can take the edge right off your day!

Graham "LIPS" Buchanan finds himself stranded between lives and he wants to know why. What does Eddie know that Lips can't remember? Lips literally goes nuts trying to separate fact, fantasy and off-the-wall recollections of a bizarre existence and the people in it: Two fathers; Eddie, the imaginary friend who hates him; a dead mother who likes to pop into his dreams for a chat; an ex-wife who might be carrying Eddie's baby, all ingredients in a darkly comic recipe, gleefully dolloped out one at a time by the sinister Eddie and stirred mercilessly toward a surprising but inevitable ending.
